

Resubmission

A re-submission should be limited to specific aspects of the assessment and no more than one re-submission is allowed.

A re-submission can be offered when students have made a mistake which they should be capable of discovering and correcting on their own. The problem should be capable of rapid resolution.

A re-submission does not constitute a further opportunity for assessment because it does not involve a new assessment being set after further learning.