

International Student

Your travel insurance summary

Insurance is a mandatory requirement

All international students are required to have appropriate medical and travel insurance while studying in New Zealand.

International Student insurance from Southern Cross Travel Insurance has been especially designed to provide international students with the cover they need. You'll have the comfort of knowing you'll be looked after if the unexpected happens.

About Southern Cross Travel Insurance

Southern Cross Travel Insurance (SCTI) is New Zealand's leading travel insurer with more than 30 years of experience and is part of the Southern Cross Healthcare Group. This group includes New Zealand's largest health insurer and a network of private surgical facilities. Southern Cross is a household name in New Zealand.

Are you eligible?

To be eligible to receive cover under this policy you must:

- (a) hold, or intend to hold, a current New Zealand student visa for the duration of the time that you are studying in New Zealand (or a visitor visa if studying for no more than 3 months); and
- (b) be enrolled at a New Zealand education provider.

What are you covered for?

This policy covers medical and evacuation, changes to your journey, personal accident, personal liability, rental vehicle excess, cash and travel documents, and baggage and personal items.

For full details of cover limits, see the policy wording.

Individual or Family cover?

You can be insured as either an individual or a family:

- 'Individual': applies to one eligible person who is named on the certificate of insurance.
- 'Family': applies to either:
 - one eligible person, any of their dependent children;
 - or
 - one eligible person, their spouse and any of their dependent children; all of whom are named on the certificate of insurance and are travelling together on the same itinerary.

When the unexpected happens...
